

Top Ten Reasons to be Affiliated with Texas Aggregates & Concrete Association

TACA members represent 80% of the aggregates, 100% of the cement, and 75% of the concrete produced in Texas today.

TACA has a political action committee (TACPAC) that raises hundreds of thousands of dollars annually and is the largest of its kind across the industry.

TACA has retained the services of a highly respected governmental advocacy group to serve our member's best interests at the state capitol.

TACA has strong relationships with the state and federal regulatory authorities, such as Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ), the State Comptroller's Office, Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT), Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), etc., to insulate our members from adverse rulings in the case of an audit or inspection.

TACA provides a marketing & technical standards staff to support our members with one-to-one marketing and specification assistance.

TACA members receive email updates such as important changes in the industry by our federal, state, or local governments.

TACA members receive our highly acclaimed quarterly magazine, the TACA Conveyor, and have access to our "member's only section" on the TACA website.

TACA members enjoy the benefit of knowledge-based seminars that provides them the tools to be on the cutting edge of industry standards and practices.

TACA provides our members with a tangible network to assist with introductory or present customer needs.

TACA members are leaders in their communities and industry and are prideful that they belong to an association that emphasizes the highest of standards.